Fox, Jessica Anne (Schmidt)

Jessica Anne (Schmidt) Fox, of Rochester, Minnesota, died Wednesday, March 29, 2006 as the result of an automobile accident. Jessie was born March 6, 1979 to Mary Beth and Barry Schmidt in Kansas City, Missouri. After attending St. Peter's Elementary School and Pembroke Hill High School, Jessie graduated with a degree in Criminal Justice from Marquette University. Jessie married her high school sweetheart, Tyler Fox, on May 6, 2005. They moved to Rochester for his residency at the Mayo Clinic where Jessie worked in the Organ Donor Transplant Unit. Jessie grew up in a loving and busy home with her mother, Mary Beth, her sisters Abby and Emily of Kansas City and her twin sister Christine, currently of San Francisco, California. Jessie displayed an unassuming and caring personality from an early age and was an unfailing source of joy and support for her family. She consistently chose to make a difference in the lives of others through her work at the Mayo Clinic and in the criminal justice system in Kansas City, Missouri. Jessie's sweet smile, quick humor and quiet determination will be missed by her husband, Tyler, and his family, her mother and sisters, her grandfather, John Latenser, and her large extended family. Jessica was preceded in death by maternal grandmother, Barbara Ann Latenser; paternal grandparents, Paul and Peggy Schmidt. Visitation will be at St. Peter's Church, 6415 Holmes Rd., Kansas City, MO on Tuesday, April 4, 2006 from 4:30 p.m. to 8 p.m., with the rosary at 7:30. Mass of Christian Burial will be at 11 a.m. Wednesday, April 5. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations to the Jessica A. Fox Memorial Fund to benefit the Mayo Clinic, c/o Heartland Bank, 4801 Town Center Drive, Leawood, KS 66211 or to St. Peter's Catholic School, 6400 Charlotte, Kansas City, MO 64131. Jessie's family expresses deep appreciation for the exceptional kindness shown to them in Rochester by the staff of St. Mary's Hospital and the Mayo Clinici!
